

Staci Futrick, the Autistic Support teacher at Roberts Elementary, was chosen as Acme's Teacher of the Month in January 2012.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Kutztown University in 1997, along with teaching certificates in Elementary and Special Education. She continued her education at Penn State University to obtain her Master's degree in Educational Leadership.

Roberts Elementary is happy to have her as part of their team and congratulate her on this honor!
